To Whom It May Concern:

We are confused by this action being taken by the commission. We have not received any notice of any filing due by River Bottom Ventures, LLC or billing to River Bottom Ventures, LLC. On your Exhibit A of the packet sent to us the entity on the docket is River Bottom Farms, Inc. which you show as having been dissolved.

I have enclosed correspondence from River Bottom Ventures, LLC addressing the last commission petition we were served with and our answer. Because we use this phone only for emergency use at the pool and have had no monetary gain from said phone we question the necessity to be listed as a "Telecommunications carrier" in the first place.

Enclosed also find the Intrastate Gross Receipts form (printed from the internet) for River Bottom Ventures, LLC not River Bottom Farms, Inc., an entity we have never been attached to or part of.

Sincerely,

Susan D. Moubray, managing member

Gentlemen:

Enclosed please find the annual report form (printed from the internet) for a payphone at our campground required by DHEC but used for emergency purposes only (at the pool area) May through September.

No one has used said phone and therefore we have no receipts to report.

We pay $480.00 a year to Pond Branch Telecommunications for this line and have never taken more than $1.50 from this phone in a 34-month period. If we are not required to be titled a payphone service provider or have a certification please let us know.

I have provided our information to the MASC, Municipal Association of South Carolina, who according to their information collect a telecommunications tax based on phone revenues. Are they a branch of or affiliated with the Public Service Commission of South Carolina? Are we required to report to them or are they a voluntary membership association? They say they represent municipalities but we are not located within the Swansea city limits.

In 2007 we requested a name change from the former owners entity, River Bottom Farms, Inc. to our entity, River Bottom Ventures, L.L.C. This change has not occurred as this year's form has again been addressed to the former owners entity.

Thank you for your assistance and any information you can provide will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Susan D. Moubrey, member
